

ALLEN COUNTY TAX UNIT

RECOMMENDED 2011 BUDGET TIME-LINE

Friday, July 23, 2010 Distribution of Auditor Certificate estimating Net Assessed Values and Miscellaneous Revenues for 2011

Tuesday, August 03, 2010 Allen County Fiscal Summit - Dr. Larry DoBoer, Keynote
Location: City-County Building - Omni Room Second Floor - 9:00am
(Opportunity to plan and share information regarding 2011 budgets)

Wednesday, September 01, 2010	Recommended Date to Submit Tax Unit Proposed Budget and Tax Levy to County Council for Non-Binding Budget Review
--------------------------------------	--

Thursday, September 02, 2010 Deadline for First Advertisement of Tax Unit proposed budget

Thursday, September 09, 2010 Deadline for Second Advertisement of Tax Unit proposed budget

Wednesday, September 22, 2010	Council Non-binding Review of County Taxing Unit's Budgets
--------------------------------------	--

Wednesday, September 29, 2010 Auditor will issue Council's Recommendations to Tax Unit and DLGF

Friday, October 15, 2010 First Day Final Budget could be adopted (Not a statutory deadline)*

Monday, November 01, 2010 Deadline for Tax Units to adopt their Final Budget

*The Allen County Auditor recommends Tax Units adopt their final budget on or after October 15, 2010

IMPORTANT REMINDER: This recommended timeline is not for schools or tax units with appointed governing bodies that are either: a solid waste management district; a fire protection district; or has a proposed budget increase in 2011 over the 2010 budget of more than the assessed value growth quotient (currently estimated to be between 1.5% to 3%). Tax units that meet the above criteria must submit their proposed budgets, rates, and levies to the appropriate city or county fiscal body by October 1, 2010 for final approval and adoption of their budget.
